SEVERE ITCHING HUMOR ON HANDS

Tiny Pustules Spread Up to Elbows —Could Not Sleep and Scratched Until She Bled—After Seven Months of Futile Treatment, Little Girl was Completely

CURED IN TWO WEEKS BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My daughter, twelve years of age, was afflicted with a terrible itching of the hands which was so bad at night that she was unable to sleep. She scratched herself until she bled. The trouble began in the shape of small pustules about the size of a pinhead which produced severe itching and then a hard scab formed on top. These always opened up again, bleeding badly. From the fingers it extended over the hand and as far as the elbows. The doctor said it was eczema and that recovery would necessarily be slow. He treated my daughter for seven months, but the trouble always grew worse. Then I started in to use the Cuticura Remedies.
After I had used Cuticura Soap for two weeks, with Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills, her hands were healed.
Mrs. M. Strecker, South Haven, Minn.,

CARTER REFUSED TRENOR'S PLACE

Reports that George R. Carter brought back with him, as a result of his extended journey on the mainland, are believed to be responsible for the general dissatisfaction that has been expressed with the services of J. D.
Trenor, who is receiving a salary of $6000 a year and $4000 for expenses to stimulate immigration to the Territory of Hawaii, with his headquarters located in New York City.

When Carter returned and stated unequivocally that Trenor was not the man for the place it is understood that he was asked to take the place himself for at least a year, the argument being that he would be rendering a great service to the Territory by reason of his familiarity with local conditions and his personal interest in the sugar industry.

Declined to Accept.

But the ex-Governor apparently thought it would be too much of a personal sacrifice to isolate himself in New York for even a year, and he declined to consider the proposal, even if he was assured that a constant stream of sturdy and willing immigrants could be diverted in this direction. But he didn't modify his opinions about the efficacy of the Trenor method and this, considered in conjunction with the failure of Trenor's work to come up to expectations as shown by actual results, has about convinced those interested in the problem of immigration that he is not exactly the man for the place.

With the adoption of the special income tax of two per cent. over $4000 the Territory can also contribute its mite, for three-fourths of the total amount collected under the enforcement of the tax will go for immigration, the remainder for the conservation and development of natural resources.

There is no question about the general dissatisfaction with Trenor's work, and conditions that have recently developed have tended to lend additional emphasis to the fact that the labor problem in the Territory has not been greatly benefited by the activities of the special New York immigration agent at $6000 per year.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATISM PAINS.

The great pain relieving power of Chamberlain's Pain Balm is clearly shown in cases of sciatica and inflammatory rheumatism, both of which are extremely painful, but one application of this liniment gives relief and enables the sufferer to sleep, which in many instances he has not been able to do for several days. For sale by

WARRANT FOR BIGAMY OUT AGAINST HONOLULU MAN

(From Wednesday Advertiser.)

On May 6 the Advertiser received a message in its Associated Press service reading "Warrant bigamy beswer." It could not be interpreted and a cabled repetition which this paper called for made it no clearer. Yesterday's files show that a resident of Honolulu, then unknown to the Advertiser, was the man meant.

The Chronicle and Examiner of May 6, both contain long articles on the charges of bigamy preferred by Mrs.
Stella La Ron Server of Saginaw, Mich., against Bert Server, now of Ho-lolu, and who is connected with the Royal Hawaiian Garage, as head man in the mechanical department. The Examiner's account is as follows:

"Pursuing her recent husband twenty-five hundred miles across the continent from Michigan to California only to find that the man had fled to Honolulu with another woman who believes herself to be his bride, Mrs.
Stella La Ron Server is in San Francisco pausing a few days for evidence before she takes up again the worldwide chase.

"Mrs. Server asserts that she is the deserted wife of Bert E. Server, formerly of the Server-Ench automobile garage at 515 Golden Gate avenue. The second marriage, by reason of which the fugitive was able to persuade another woman to share his flight, Mrs.
Server alleges was contracted with Miss Anna Fay at San Rafael October 17. The pursuing wife asserts that this marriage was bigamous, and after she told her story to the police yesterday on her arrival here she declared that she would resume the pursuit and follow the couple to the end of the world in order to bring Server to justice.

"She announced that she would take passage on the next steamer for the Islands and confront her husband with the evidences of his duplicity. She was advised that the bigamy, if such a felony had been committed, was governed by the laws of this State and that the offender would have to be prosecuted here. Mrs. Server No. 1 agreed to this program and announced that she would swear out a warrant for Server's arrest here, and that she would visit central police station today for that purpose. She hopes to have an officer of the law accompany her on her trip to Honolulu to serve the warrant.

Mrs. Anna Fay Server, the second wife, is a sister of Mrs. John Jamieson of 20 Broderick street, and a distant cousin of Charles, Philip and Stanley Fay, the first of whom was secretary to former Mayor James D. Phelan, and afterwards secretary of the Board of Superiority. As Miss Anna Fay she went to Nevada and served a term as a clerk in the Nevada Legislature, and afterward married there. Her marriage did not prove a happy one and she separated from her husband and resumed her maiden name. With the opening of the Maun Hotel in this city she had the position of telephone operator, which she left to become the bride of Server, who had been paying her court for more than a year."

The Chronicle's account is as follows:

"Mrs. Stella Server called at police headquarters yesterday with her brother with the intention of swearing out a warrant for the arrest of her husband, Bert E. Server, on a charge of bigamy, but she was too late, all the judges having gone for the day.
She said she would swear to the complaint tomorrow morning, as she was determined to prosecute.

"Mrs. Server threw more light yesterday on the proceedings that pre-
